RE:

Dear Merlis Monchery:

Please accept our deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. My prayer is that you receive the extra strength you need at this difficult time in your life.

The proceeds of the policy have been sent as assigned and an explanation of benefits is enclosed.

The loss of a loved one is a terrible blow. Our hope is that the service we have provided has made this difficult time in your life just a little easier. Accordingly, I would very much appreciate hearing from you concerning our service on this claim. Please either write us a note and return it to us in the envelope provided, or visit our website at www.lhlic.com/feedback and submit a review. We look forward to hearing from you.

Please be in touch with us any time we can be of further assistance to you.

Kindest regards,
